

David J. Zwerling - Partner

Backed by decades of experience, David J. Zwerling has provided countless clients with representation in general litigation matters. He has handled personal injury claims, transactional matters, estate planning, real estate law, and other litigation cases throughout multiple courts in New Jersey and New York. He brings a positive reputation for providing high-quality legal counsel in a wide range of matters, all focused on obtaining the most favorable result possible. He has served as founding and senior partner with numerous law firm in the past, including opening his own law firm in 1990 after serving as an associate with a mid-size real estate transactional and litigation firm. This experience results in passionate representation of each attorney in need of skilled advocacy in litigation matters.

Mr. Zwerling's experience has also helped him serve as a Public Defender for the city of Hackensack, as well as a substitute prosecutor for the city of Hackensack and borough of Dumont, NJ. When it comes to matters involving complex litigation, Mr. Zwerling utilizes his ability and experience to put forth a strong case for our clients. His experience also ranges to cases involving defense of law enforcement officers in Federal 1983 Civil Rights actions, municipal court actions, workers' compensation claims, Social Security Disability, and more. You can count on him to provide the top-notch care and counsel you need during this difficult time.

Education

- Brooklyn Law School, J.D. – 1986
- Tufts University, B.A. – 1983 (with honors)

Bar Qualifications

- New York
- New Jersey

Professional Memberships

- Paralegal Advisory Committee Board – Bergen Community College, Paralegal Studies Dept.
- Board of Public Works

To enlist Mr. Zwerling's services for your case, please call our office today for more information.