

Ron F. Wright - Partner

Ron F. Wright is among our team of talented and dedicated New York lawyers at The Russell Friedman Law Group, LLP. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Sacred Heart University in May 2007 and his law degree from Albany Law School in May 2010. While a law student, he served as the executive editor for the Albany Law Journal of Science and Technology and authored the note entitled “Shocking the Second Amendment: Invalidating State Prohibitions on Taser with the District of Columbia v. Heller,” 20 ALB. L.J. SCI. & TECH. 159 (2010). His published note was cited as an amicus brief for the U.S. Supreme Court.

Mr. Wright was also a member of the Albany Law School Trial Team, winner of the Karen C. McGovern Senior Prize Trials Competition, Judge Merle Nahum Fogg, Jr. '45 Moot Court Prize, and recipient of the Capital District Trial Lawyers Association Award. He was inducted into the National Order of Barristers for outstanding ability in the preparation of moot appellate argument. In March 2012, Mr. Wright was admitted to practice before the Vermont state courts.

Mr. Wright is also the founding member of The Wright Firm, LLC. His firm focuses on representing injured plaintiffs in personal injury matters and prosecuting claims on behalf of medical providers against insurance companies. If you need help addressing a legal matter as quickly as possible, he can help you become better informed about the various options that are available to you.

Education

- Albany Law School, J.D. – 2010
- Sacred Heart University, B.S. – 2007

Bar Qualifications

- New York
- Vermont

Professional Memberships

- New York State Trial Lawyers Association
- New York State Academy of Trial Lawyers
- Monroe County Bar Association
- Vermont Bar Association

To speak with Mr. Wright about your case, please get in touch with our firm today.